

GONNA FIND YOU

(Keith Abler)

Gonna find you
Gonna find you so you better start running yea
Gonna find you
There are questions that have got too be answered

I'm bound to catch up to you some day
And when I do there's gonna be hell to pay

Gonna find you
Gonna find you if it takes me forever
Gonna find you
Gonna take it fully measure for measure

When you just got up and walked away
You left me hangin' with the bill to pay

Gonna find you
