

THE BOTTOM IS A LONG WAY DOWN

Baby, yes it's cold and lonely, we've spent the whole night trapped inside blankets and private admissions of those things so secretly wrapped.
It's time I move from your doorstep there's no use in hanging around,
cause the bottom is a long way down.

Cold promises whispered in moonlight are only memories now.
we've wasted all this time faking romance bleeding out every last vow.
I've slipped from these heights once too often the bottom is a long way down,

yes the bottom is a long way down it's a long way down
such a long way down down down down down

We set our sights so long ago I almost have to laugh thinking we could grab onto the rainbow even in spite of the past.
Well everyone rides high sometime with a brief hand on the crown
but the bottom is a long way down is a long way down
such a long way down down down down down

Take care of yourself, it's been grand to know you in spite of yourself and the memories that I hold to cold promises dear, cold promises told true. La la la la ahhhh
