

The Girl I Can't Forget

(Dave Steffen & Mike Dellger)

Remembering when I saw your face the first time
I fell in love before I knew that you were sensitive as you were lovely and what a heart like that could do.

You said that you just moved from California
how life out there came hard and fast
but someday you knew you'd be gain' back there,
there's such a magnet in the past.

Tonight I'll have your love
moon runnin' in clouds above
Tomorrow 's faded sun
tells the doves
one by one

It's not that easy baby now
when those memories come to me.
Half a happy ending
is all It'll ever be (yeah).
But don't regret the times we had hold them close and just be glad.
I know that it ain't much,
but your sweet touch was all I needed.

Your night time vision still comes back to tempt me
I'll always be here in your debt.
You taught me how I'd learn to love another,
but you're the girl I can 't forget.
You are the girl I can 't forget.
